

To: National Library Board

1. I wish to voluntarily participate in the social action project "Mother · Art · Healing" through a Mother's Day Art Exhibition (the Exhibition) organised by Mama On Palette and The Red Pencil (Singapore).

2. I confirm that:

a) I wish to exhibit my own work of art (the Artwork) at the Exhibition

b) I own the Artwork

c) I own the copyright to the Artwork.

3. I understand and accept that the Exhibition:

a) will be held from 4-31 May 2022 at Library@Orchard and that the National Library Board (NLB) is the venue sponsor.

b) the Artwork will be displayed in barrier free open public spaces with no gallery sitters.

4. I agree to the following conditions for the display of my Artwork at the Exhibition:

a) To the best of my knowledge, the Artwork does not contain or convey anything that infringes copyright, or is obscene, defamatory, political in nature or otherwise illegal. I accept that NLB's premises are community spaces and NLB has the right to remove any artwork from the Exhibition if it contains or conveys anything that infringes copyright, or is obscene, defamatory, political in nature or otherwise illegal or deemed to be inappropriate in NLB's discretion.

b) The display of the Artwork shall be at my own risk and NLB shall not be held responsible for any damage or loss in relation to the Artwork.

c) NLB may take photographs or videos of the Exhibition and the Artwork. The photographs and videos may be used for any NLB purposes including

i) To be archived and made available at libraries or archives.

ii) To be shown online.

iii) To be used in publications.

d) Nothing in this document shall prevent me from continuing to use any content, ideas or expressions contained in my Artwork and any copyright to the same shall remain with me.
